we've incorporated an enormous amount of feedback from over 700 reviewers, focus group and symposium participants. The list of changes and improvements on the next few pages is testament to the many hours that reviewers spent thinking about and analyzing our earlier editions, helping us to make financial accounting the best book of its kind. Text was reduced in many places to simplify and clarify discussion. Feature stories, real world examples, and ratio analyses in each chapter were updated to the most recent year. Financial statement effects were highlighted in the margin of all journal entries. Chapter framework illustrations at the end of each chapter were modified to include analysis. In most chapters, five self-study multiple choice questions were added to the chapter framework illustration. In each chapter, five additional questions are available online.

David Spiceland, Wayne Thomas, and Don Herrmann have developed a unique text based on over 50 collective years of experience in the classroom. They've brought together best practices like highlighting common mistakes, offering frequent let's review exercises, integrating the course with a running continuing problem, demonstrating the relevance of the course to non-majors with a career corner, and communicating it all in a student-friendly conversational writing style. The new 2nd edition of financial accounting, Spiceland, Thomas, Herrmann, has been developed with feedback from over 330 reviewers and focus group participants from across the country. The following list of changes and improvements is a testament to the many hours that reviewers spent analyzing the 1st edition, helping make financial accounting 2nd edition the best book of its kind.
