this book takes a unique approach to the idea of soul care by comparing it to the concept of home when we allow jesus to do a transformational work in our souls to give us the feeling of home loved secure nourished accepted and healing every day when we make it a practice to cultivate jesus presence within us we will feel at home in our inner being instead of being spiritually and emotionally homeless when we cultivate the presence of Jesus and work through key soul care principles and develop a rhythm of practices that incorporate the spiritual disciplines of feeding on God's word, worship and thanksgiving, listening, prayer, praying, scripture and times of fasting and solitude. It leads our soul home. These practices create an atmosphere that God uses to fill us with more of Himself and His ways. The more of God we have, the more He guides us to tear down walls of self-protection, find the truth of who we are in Christ and defeat the attacks of our enemy Satan so that we start walking more as Jesus walked. This process brings our soul to the home where it belongs.

Globalisation and the rule of law reassesses the idea of the rule of law within the present complex and increasingly internationalized environment. There have been many books studying the phenomenon of globalization and its economic, social or cultural consequences. This book, however, is the first to relate globalization exclusively to law. It examines the impact of globalization upon the rule of law, a fundamental value within liberal democratic sovereign states. The book opens with three chapters discussing the theory of the rule of law and its necessary reconceptualization in a global environment. Then, in three sections considering global trade, security and human rights, it proposes new ways of thinking about global law and its application in new and existing institutions of global governance. Contributors include top-flight academics, politicians and judges, making this book significant and relevant in both jurisprudential theory and political practice.
