organizational behaviour as a management discipline is a fascinating subject and is becoming increasingly important as people with diverse backgrounds and cultural values have to work together effectively and efficiently this book addresses all the issues that come in to play in an organization in today s global economy it has a novel orientation and its primary aim is to let practitioners and students know the latest and best trends in organizational behaviour this book prescribes methods to manage employees and suggests that the management takes responsibility for everything that might adversely affect an employee s capacity to work creatively and intelligently irrespective of the place inside the organization or outside it the focus of the book is on holistic development of the individual peeping into the human mind it shows how organizations can tap the passions and fears of their employees to make them more creative and productive the book prescribes a democratic and inclusive management style a special feature of this book is that there is an innovative integration of chapter objectives and summaries leading to analysis through caselets every point in the objectives has corresponding text and is supplemented by a case going through this book will be a personally fulfilling experience and maybe it succeeds to make the readers better human beings better teachers better friends and may be even better managers this study investigated whether known economic and international business theories available in the literature are meaningful enough to explain the nature existence and role of multinational companies mncs in the middle east particularly saudi arabia two sets of questionnaires were distributed in major cities of saudi arabia one set for 100 multinational managers and another for 280 multinational customers 234 questionnaires were collected 45 from multinational managers and 189 from customers this represents a total response rate of 62 percent which is adequate for this study the empirical results supported with comprehensive secondary data confirmed virtually all of the research hypotheses the study found that joint ventures are the dominant form of multinational business in saudi arabia both in manufacturing and service industries the core roles of mncs in the saudi foreign ventures are evident in the cross border value adding activities of marketing trading manufacturing consulting contracting project management insurance hotel operation and banking likewise mncs provide licensing franchising financing services and various auxiliary roles in the kingdom therefore the multinationality of a firm or a group of firms operating across national boundaries is not necessarily synonymous with international production the main subject of contemporary multinational theories the respondents generally perceived the competitiveness of mncs operating in saudi arabia as a function of a number of economic management marketing technological and other variables they also perceived the contributions of mncs to the kingdom's socio economic developments as significant and positive the study also found that understanding islamic values and ethics is important for mncs in this regard the researcher looked at some objective indicators of business success and related them to selected measures of mncs local cultural awareness and responsiveness the results indicate that the business success of multinationals operating in saudi arabia is positively related to their local cultural awareness and responsiveness along this line this study covers some vital elements of islamic culture which will help mncs understand further the cultural needs values and sensitivities of the saudi people and muslims in general
