over the past sixty years the writings of jean paul sartre have probably been more influential in the west than those of any other philosopher and literary figure in his theoretical writings sartre laid the foundation for an original doctrine of existentialism his concern however was to relate his theory to human response and the practical demands of living to achieve this he carried his philosophical concepts into his novels and plays and there subjected them to the test of imagined experience his uniqueness lies in the success with which he demonstrated the utility of existentialist doctrine while creating at the same time works of the highest literary merit thus sartre became the populariser of his own literary thought originally delivered as a lecture in paris in 1945 existentialism and humanism is jean paul sartre s seminal defence of existentialism as a doctrine true to humanism as opposed to a purely nihilistic creed and a plan for its practical application to everyday human life this exploration of one of the central tenets of his philosophical thought has become the essential introduction to his work and a fundamental text for all students of philosophy page 4 of cover there are already many excellent books on existentialism some of them deal with particular problem or particular existentialist writers most of those that deal with existentialism as a whole divide their subject matter according to authors presenting chapters on kierkegaard heidegger sartre and the rest thus i think that there is room for the present book which attempts a comprehensive examination and evaluation of existentialism but does so by thematic treatment that is to say each chapter deals with a major theme of existentialist philosophy and these themes are arranged in the order of the existential dialect of course each chapter is illustrated with material from the writings of existentialists from kierkegaard to camus existentialism represents a protest against the rationalism of traditional philosophy against misleading notions of the bourgeois culture and the dehumanizing values of industrial civilization since alienation loneliness and self estrangement constitute threats to human personality in the modern world existential thought has viewed as its cardinal concerns a quest for subjective truth a reaction against the negation of being and a perennial search for freedom from the ancient greek philosopher socrates to the twentieth century french philosopher jean paul sartre and other thinkers have dealt with this tragic sense of ontological reality the human situation within a comic context the book put forward is the beginning of an attempt to revive existentialism by addressing these issues the idea is eventually to present a conception of personhood that is recognizably existentialist or similar to that presented by writers like kierkegaard heidegger jaspers and sartre in certain fundamental ways but that takes into account the last twenty years of developments in the many different areas of philosophy that directly affect our understanding of what it is to be a person the result will hopefully be a more sophisticated existentialist theory of personhood that can be presented in contemporary terms as a serious challenge to current dogmas in metaphysics and moral theory and be defended against the ascendant naturalistic rationalistic or pragmatist alternatives
