VIRTUAL EVENTS

Community is one of the most important things we have, especially during a time when many of us have been distanced from one another. The Curamericas Global family has been working hard to try to stay connected, and one of the most effective tactics we've found is virtual events.

To raise funds and continue to build strong communities together, we've put together some ideas for how you could host virtual events to raise funds for your Mom-A-Thon team. Check out the tools and ideas below and reach out to us with any questions!

Zoom Trivia Nights

Use this opportunity to connect with your friends and family! Consider hosting a Zoom Trivia Night as a way to raise funds for your Mom-A-Thon team by using some of the following tactics:

- Ask folks to give a $5 donation to play
- Using the pool of donations, offer one big donation in the name of the winner of the event

Trivia can be about whatever your crew is interested in, but the Curamericas website has lots of great facts about child and maternal health! :)

Facebook Fundraisers and Birthday Pledges

This easy fundraising option harnesses the power and reach of social media by simply asking for donations online. Share your fundraising link and your set goal and ask your friends, family and followers to help support the mission! If you have a birthday coming up, we'd be honored if you'd consider hosting a Facebook Fundraiser in honor of your birthday this year. We would love to be tagged in your posts!

Virtual Interactive Events

If trivia and Zoom meetings aren't your style, don't worry - there are plenty of other fun things to do online. Consider hosting a Facebook Live event where you do an interactive activity and ask for donations. Our Young Professionals Board has hosted calligraphy classes, virtual workouts and bingo! Pick your passion and put it to work for Curamericas Global. If you're doing a Facebook Live, give us a tag so we can share it on our page!
